Labyrinth created with spring bulbs
Springwater Presbyterian Church, Estacada, Oregon
April is the best time to visit

Dear Friends,

A new edition of The LNN Newsletter has just been published. It has a variety of information about some of the interesting creative people who are part of Labyrinth Network Northwest and some of the ways northwest people are expressing their enthusiasm for labyrinths.

<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/newsletter.html>

It has been 6 months since the last LNN Newsletter was published. There is definitely no shortage of news. The problem is finding time to write about what's happening. I absolutely can't do it alone. We need to form a new Newsletter Committee to help plan, gather information and pictures, write, and format newsletters. All LNN Committees communicate through e-mail and telephone. So, you can be part of a committee no matter where you live. Can you help? If you'd like to be part of a team so that we can publish newsletters on a more regular basis, please contact info@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org. Thanks!

How are you celebrating World Labyrinth Day?

Send us a picture and a few words telling what you did on World Labyrinth Day.
It'll be fun for all of us to see the great variety of ways people enjoy labyrinths.

Shoes, Shoes, Shoes and more Shoes

Crystal Dawn Walker is creating a shoe labyrinth for the Labyrinth Festival at Marylhurst University on May 1
It takes a lot of shoes to make a shoe labyrinth
Collect shoes from your neighbors and friends and bring them to Marylhurst on Saturday

Shoes will be donated to charity to help the homeless

Join me May 1st 2010, World Labyrinth Day ~ Walk as One at 1

World Labyrinth Day is a global event in celebration of the labyrinth as a symbol, a tool, a passion or a practice. As part of this celebration you are invited to "Walk as One at 1" to effect a rolling wave of labyrinth walking as the earth turns. Walk in your local time zone at 1 PM. More information at The Labyrinth Society <http://www.labyrinthsociety.org>. Find a labyrinth on the Labyrinth Locator <http://www.labyrinthlocator.com>

See the LNN website for more information about the Portland Area celebration of World Labyrinth Day
