

From: Kay Kinneavy <kkinneavy@embarqmail.com>
Date: May 12, 2010 1:09:19 AM CDT
To: LNN Announcements <announcements@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org>
Subject: Labyrinth News

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you for all the shoes!
The shoe labyrinth on World Labyrinth Day was a big success!

227 pair of shoes were donated
Everybody loved the labyrinth

LNN's World Labyrinth Day celebration at Marylhurst was such a success that everybody thinks we should make it an annual event. It was a lot of work but worth the effort. Pictures and more info will be coming soon.

3 New Reflections have been posted on the LNN Resources Page.
These articles really demonstrate the great creativity and diversity among the LNN members.

Asterion (above) is a labyrinth created at a lighthouse in northern British Columbia. Read its fascinating history.

Christiana Brinton takes us behind the scenes on Blog Talk Radio. Read how she does the broadcasts.

Scott Crane had the wonderful opportunity to give a sermon on the beautiful new labyrinth at Menucha.

You'll find all these interesting and varied perspectives on labyrinths on the LNN Reflections Page.
<http://labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/reflections.html>

New article about Labyrinths in Healthcare

Labyrinths: Spiritual Technology for Inner Healing by Robert Ferre
on the LNN Resources Page

<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources.html>

Educator's Resource

Recommended Book for teaching children about the labyrinth.

Buy it now at a discount

Labyrinth Experience
by Lorraine Villemaire

I want to buy this book. It's cheaper if we buy several copies at the same time. The price varies depending on how many people buy the book as part of our order. Let me know right away if you'd like to buy a copy.

Read a review of this book in the Australian Newsletter Spring 2009, page 7

More info on the author's website:

http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/2009/Australian_2009_spring.pdf

Portland's Newest Labyrinth

in the Goldsmith Building in Downtown Portland is really unusual

find a picture of it on Jelly's Blawg.

The link is on the LNN Resources Page

It's with Other Interesting Labyrinth Links

just above the Virtual Labyrinth Walks
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources.html>

Yes, I admit it's getting more challenging to find things as the resource list continues to grow! Maybe we need to reorganize things a bit. Would you like to help? This is just one of many places where volunteers are needed.

LNN is a totally volunteer organization. We have no paid staff. We could use some help with many interesting projects. 3 new committees are now being formed Hospitality, Newsletter, Publicity.... Interested?

At this weekend's LNN Planning Circle Meeting, it was decided that it's time for us to do some new outreach projects. We'll be sending more details about that very soon.

Kay Kinneavy
Labyrinth Network Northwest
PO Box 722
Neskowin, OR 97149-0722
kay@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/>