Prison Labyrinth: Coffee Creek Correctional Facility Volunteer opportunity to work with the labyrinth at the women's prison

Coffee Creek Correctional Facility, the OR state prison for women, is looking for some volunteers who would be willing to walk the labyrinth with the women inmates. There is a large canvas labyrinth that lays out in the chapel, but they currently at a loss for volunteers. The usual meeting time is Mondays from 6-7, but that can be negotiated based on the availability of leadership.

LNN is forming a team of volunteers to work with the labyrinth at Coffee Creek. If you would like to be part of that team, please contact me for additional information. Kay@Labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org

New addition to LNN Resources Page:

Interview with Lisa Moriarty, artist and creator of more than 100 labyrinths
"Ancient Circles" is an outstanding interview published Oct. 2011 in MN Women's Press.

Lisa has a wonderful way of putting into words what many of us feel about labyrinths.
