Dear Labyrinth Friends,

I'm traveling so I only have time for a few quick notes.

This Wednesday, November 2 there will be a special labyrinth walk to celebrate Dia de los Muertos, All Soul's Day at Grace Memorial Episcopal Church. Please check the LNN Calendar for details of this and many other labyrinth events. <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

I'm sorry I wasn't able to send an update in time for you to participate in the dedication of the new labyrinth in Denny Park on the north side of Seattle. Labyrinths in public parks are rare in the northwest, so please keep this one in mind for future visits to the Seattle area. Read Myra Smith's article about the new labyrinth with the News articles on the LNN resources page <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources.html#articles>

LNN member Sharlene Inglis has moved from Portland to Montana. It's good to know she's still using her labyrinth to do good work. Sharlene's labyrinth was recently featured in a news article, "Festival Promotes Alternative Healing, Helps Brain Injury Group" This article is also on the LNN Resources page with the news articles. <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources.html#articles>

Happy Halloween.
Walk a labyrinth to celebrate!

Love,

Kay
