Beach Labyrinth, Bandon, Oregon
by Denny Dyke

Dear Labyrinth Friends,

Summer is a good time for labyrinth walking. Include labyrinths in your plans for this week-end.

Saturday, July 21 is the monthly candlelight labyrinth walk at Westminster Presbyterian in Portland.

Sunday, July 22 is a special event at Shalom Prayer Center in Mt. Angel
"In Memory of Her" : a Workshop and labyrinth walk for men and women on the feast day of Mary Magdalene.

Details about these and many other interesting labyrinth events can be found on the LNN Calendar.

Oregon has an abundance of beautiful outdoor labyrinths. To help you explore, we have some labyrinth lists and self-guided tours on the LNN Resources Page section on Oregon Labyrinths:

After 2 weeks traveling, I am now back at my computer and working on updating the LNN Calendar. If you have upcoming events you'd like to add, please send them now.

We would also welcome articles for LNN Reflections. This could be a personal labyrinth experience, report on a labyrinth event including pictures, your labyrinth poetry, etc. Be creative!

Many blessings on your path,
