slideshow presentation

by Jodi Lorimer

Saturday, April 6, 2013

Grace Memorial Episcopal Church

4 PM Labyrinth Walk

5 PM Minotaur Presentation

Jodi Lorimer has presented 4 different workshops at International Labyrinth Gatherings. If you've been unable to attend those workshops, this is your chance. Jodi is doing her presentation on The Minotaur as a fundraiser for LNN. Please come.... walk the labyrinth ... have some refreshments... chat with other labyrinth enthusiasts, and learn about the Minotaur. Take a look at that Minotaur on the LNN Home Page and get more details about this presentation. <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/>

We'd appreciate your help with spreading the word about Jodi's presentation. Fliers are available on the LNN Resources Page. Please print a couple of fliers and put them where interested people might see them. Thanks!

Labyrinth Marketplace

We'll have a little labyrinth marketplace on April 6 at Grace Memorial during the Minotaur event. It'll be a great way to pick up some gift items for labyrinth enthusiasts. You may want to buy a gift for yourself too.

If you have labyrinth products for sale, bring them to the Minotaur presentation.
Contact Jodi@LabyrinthNetworkNorthwest.org to reserve table space.

Thanks to Sandy Stumpf for taking a few pictures while the rest of us were busy talking and eating. It was a fun day.

Thanks to Stephen Shibley for giving us lots of helpful info about plans for next fall's International Labyrinth Gathering on Vancouver Island, B.C. It sounds like a wonderful opportunity to have quite a variety of labyrinth experiences. There will be a series of labyrinth events beginning in Victoria, B.C. several days before the actual gathering begins. So come if you can and stay as long as possible. Stephen recommended planning a week's vacation if you can. A bunch of LNN people are planning to go to Vancouver Island in various ways... travel by car, airplane, train, ferry, etc. There are many options. Let us know if you'd like to join our group. Everyone is welcome.
