Sharing Labyrinths

LNN often gets requests for info about where to borrow or rent a labyrinth. So, we're going to try to collect info about available labyrinths. Tell us the type of labyrinth and size. We need contact info. Then you do the negotiation about details and cost. You must be either an individual or group membership in LNN.

Creating this list is a job that's been delayed for several months.

Let's start now!

Send me your info: Kay@Labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org

Let's show the world the great labyrinths of the Pacific Northwest !!

Do you have some good labyrinth photos you'd like to share?

Please note: photos of labyrinth art are also requested.
TLS is collecting member images for a slideshow at the big labyrinth gathering in British Columbia.

If you don't have a personal membership in The Labyrinth Society, you can submit via LNN because LNN has a group membership in TLS.

Share photos of your labyrinth installations, artwork, and designs created since 2011. All current TLS members are invited to submit up to six images (max 1 per project) for a slideshow at the Annual Gathering and TLS facebook group. Submit images via email to: Lars Howlett <findlars@gmail.com> Deadline September 1st. You do not need to be present at the gathering to participate.

Please include your name, phone, and email in your submission and the following information for each jpeg:

- labyrinth name
- location
- date built/created
- size
- type

-material

Here's another offer you can't resist!

LNN is thinking about making a photo calendar of Northwest Labyrinths. If you have a great picture you'd like to submit, send it to me.... same info as above, but also tell us if this photo was taken at a special occasion.

If your photo is selected for the calendar, we'll give you a free copy of the calendar.... actually, I'll give you one free calendar for each picture used in the calendar.

Final Reminder - Tomorrow's the workshop: Children and Labyrinths: Focus and Fun

Don't miss this great opportunity.
