Lectio & Labyrinth: A Gratitude Walk

The Mosaic Bible Reflections article about gratitude is perfect for Thanksgiving. This article weaves together the ancient spiritual practice of Lectio Divina with Walking the Labyrinth. There's a finger labyrinth which you can download and print.

Suncatchers - order now for holiday gifts

LNN's Labyrinth Suncatchers are the perfect gift for labyrinth enthusiasts ... Christmas gifts, Birthday gifts, Hostess Gifts, etc. These beautiful labyrinth are made from recycled glass at a glass foundry operated by the St. Vincent DePaul Society. So, you can help the homeless, help LNN, and help the environment all at once by buying suncatchers. A variety of colors is now available. Order online, and we'll ship them to you before Christmas! This is LNN's primary fundraiser and helps keep our website online.

Congratulations to Jamie Rossetti and Sandy Stumpf who recently completed their Veriditas Labyrinth Facilitator Training in San Francisco.

Jamie is facilitating the labyrinth walks at Portland State University
Sandy is a member of the Labyrinth Guild at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Gresham

Would you like to own a big outdoor labyrinth?

There's a property for sale which has a labyrinth on it. Google 1184 NW Barker Creek Rd. Bremerton, WA. to get info about the property. This long neglected labyrinth has been blessed by a Episcopalian Minister and a Cowlitz Tribe shaman so hopefully karma will bring the next owners to restore it.

"Walking with Icons" at Trinity Cathedral, Portland - December 2

This special Advent event is a joint project of the Trinity Labyrinth Guild and The Trinity Iconography Institute. An opening procession at 6:30 PM will lead you to the labyrinth where icons will then be displayed adding inspiration and beauty to your walk. Flier for more info:

Driftwood Labyrinth
