Labyrinth for Lent and Holy Week

Lent is a time for reflection. It's a great time for labyrinth walking. There are some special Lenten Labyrinth Walks listed on the LNN Calendar.
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

If your event is not listed, send me the info quickly because I'm going to be traveling again and need to get the calendar updated before I leave home.

If you can't attend any special labyrinth events, take time to walk by yourself. There are a tremendous number of labyrinths available in Oregon and Washington. Take a look at the Worldwide Labyrinth Locator. LNN's Resources page has a collection of maps and self-guided tours, etc. to help you find a labyrinth near you.

Save these dates!!!

We're planning a series of Summer Labyrinth Pilgrimages. The first one will be Saturday, June 21... visiting 2 beautiful private labyrinths in Eugene. More details will be coming soon.

Saturday, July 12 will be a Labyrinth Pilgrimage to a beautiful private labyrinth in the hills of west Portland.

These are two rare opportunities which you won't want to miss. Invite some friends to join you for the Pilgrimages.

Attention Labyrinth Walkers

Do you walk the labyrinth? Do you receive blessings/gifts from walking? If you have answered yes to this short survey, then you might be interested in an opportunity to share some of the blessings of the labyrinth. There is a small and faithful group that comes to volunteer at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility on Monday evenings to walk with a select group of inmates who also find gift in walking the labyrinth. We are looking for additional people to join us in this ministry. There is training for both how to lead the time with the inmates as well as how to navigate life in the Facility. You never are there alone as a leader. The time starts in Control at 5:30 to get checked in and meet your partner for the evening. You are with the inmates for a short hour from 6-7 in the prison chapel. If you want more information on how to come and visit to see if this is where you are being called to serve contact Julia Cooley at Julia@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org
