Labyrinth in Fleetwood Gardens
Surrey, British Columbia, Canada

World Labyrinth Day Celebrations

How did you celebrate World Labyrinth Day? Send pictures if you can. It's interesting to see the variety of labyrinth events.

I celebrated WLD in St. Paul, Minnesota where I walked a labyrinth in a public garden behind the public library. We walked as one at 1PM with a group of about 20 people. We were then invited to walk Lisa Moriarty's new labyrinth design which allows 2 people to walk together holding hands. Then I heard reports on all the amazing work being done by members of The Minnesota Labyrinth Network including writing books, creating labyrinths in hospitals, public parks, etc., and making knitted finger labyrinths.

Our LNN friends in Surrey, B.C., Canada walked the labyrinth at Fleetwood Park to celebrate because the Mayor of Surrey, proclaimed Saturday, May 3, 2014 as World Labyrinth Day in Surrey.

LNN friends in Vancouver, B.C., Canada walked a sand labyrinth on 1:00 PM on the beach at Spanish Banks.

In Gresham, Oregon, 14 people gathered at 1:00 PM on WLD for prayers and warming the labyrinth, then a long silent pilgrimage on the labyrinth to a flute CD, and good conversation and International treats at the conclusion.
