

From: Kay Kinneavy Kay@Kinneavy.com
Subject: Correction on Dec. 29 labyrinth event
Date: December 29, 2015 at 1:53 AM
To: LNN Announcements announcements@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org

Dear Labyrinth Friends,

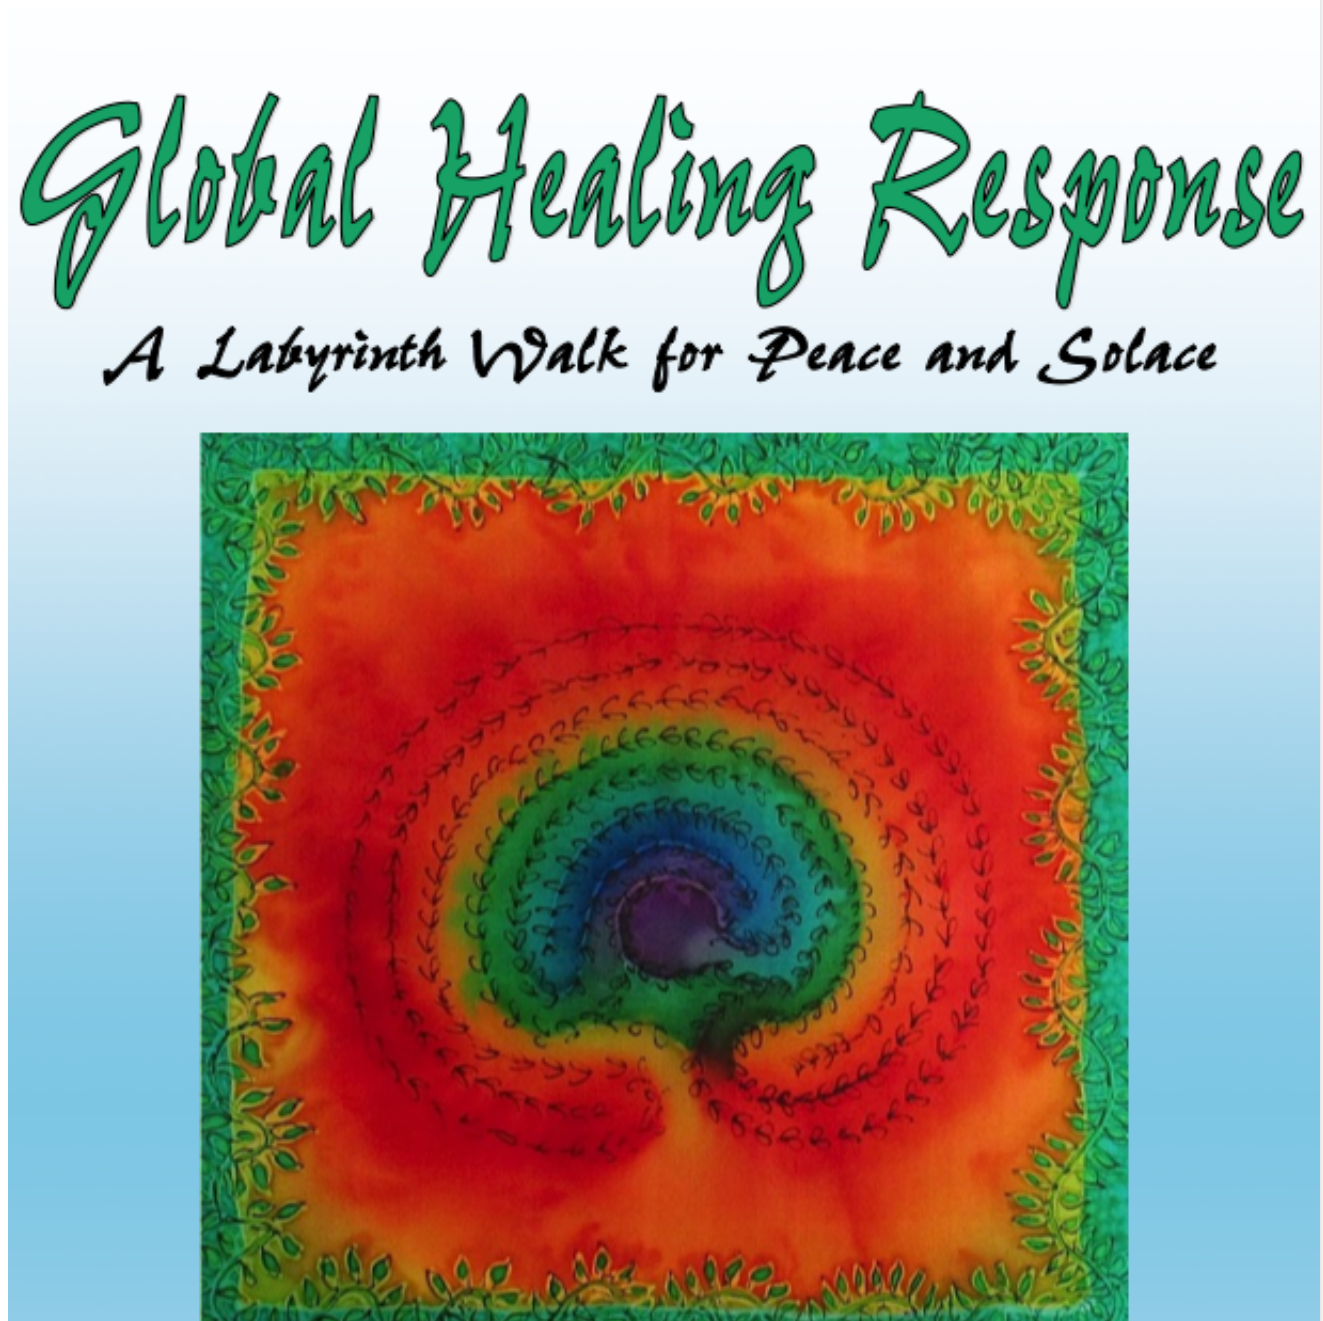

There was an error in the recent e-mail announcement.

The correct date for the Wounded Knee Labyrinth Walk is Tuesday, December 29. The ceremony begins at noon. at First Unitarian Church in downtown Portland.

This is an opportunity for you to show you solidarity with the Native Americans and other victims of massacre. Join others around the world in this important labyrinth event.

Check the attached flier or the LNN Calendar for more details

<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

Join First Unitarian's Friends of the Labyrinth in partnership with the Global Healing Labyrinth Community for a Global Healing Response Labyrinth Walk to promote peace and provide hope throughout the world. In collaboration with Native Elders' Healing Hearts at Wounded Knee global call to ceremony, we will join other events around the world on this day to step forward together to engender peace and honor life, walking in the spirit of solidarity with all those affected by war and violence.

All are welcome to attend.

For more information visit www.healingheartsatwoundedknee.com.

Tuesday, December 29, 12 - 1 p.m.

Ceremonial Prayer at Noon

First Unitarian Church Buchan Reception Room

First Unitarian Church Adult Programs
