New Year's Peace Walk 2013
Grace Memorial Episcopal Church
Portland, OR

Dear Labyrinth friends,

Celebrating the New Year on the labyrinth has become a very popular way to celebrate the New Year.... especially good for those of us who don't enjoy watching football on TV. There will be quite a variety of labyrinth events this year. Please join us for as many as you can. Labyrinth walking is a good way to end the old year 2015 and to welcome the NEW YEAR 2016

Friday, December 31, 2015 - New Year's Eve:

Trinity Cathedral in Portland will have its traditional New Year's Eve Labyrinth Walk
7:00 PM There will be an interesting and varied concert in the Cathedral to benefit their ministry to the homeless
The Labyrinth Walk in Trinity's Kempton Hall will follow the concert

8:30 - Midnight - New Year's Eve Labyrinth Walk at Trinity Cathedral

Saturday, January 1, 2016

New Year's Day there will be a choice of events at different locations.

Eunice Schroeder will be leading a labyrinth Walk in Vancouver, WA
First Presbyterian Church
Come any time 10 AM - 3 PM

Grace Memorial Episcopal Church in Portland will be having a Peace Walk with live music and 2 labyrinths.
The smaller labyrinth in the church basement is particularly good for children or adults who prefer a shorter path.
They invite you to make this a family event.

Details of all these and many other events can be found on the LNN Calendar
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

Denny Dyke will be creating Circles in the Sand on Facerock Beach at Bandon, Oregon beginning January 2 & 3 (weather permitting)
See Denny's schedule of events for 2016 <http://www.circlesinthesand.us/Calendar.html>

Labyrinths you can do at Home

If you are unable to participate in any of these events, you can start your New Year on a virtual labyrinth. There are many

If you are unable to participate in any of these events, you can start your own year or a virtual labyrinth. There are many different virtual labyrinths available for computer, iphone and ipad. You can find them on the LNN Resources Page <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources.html#virtual>
