Repainting the Labyrinth
at Legacy Meridian Park Medical Center
Tualatin, Oregon

Dear Labyrinth Friends,

Saturday morning, August 4, 2018, the labyrinth at Legacy Meridian Park Hospital was born again. In recent months, I have had many reports that this hospital labyrinth was in terrible condition and there was a possibility that it would be removed. The labyrinth survived weather, vandalism, and hospital politics, and was repainted by people who care about it. The two Hospital Chaplains and a group of volunteers did the painting under the direction of DC Donohue and Russell Hill. I was very excited to have the opportunity to go to Legacy Meridian Park Hospital to see them putting the finishing touching on painting the labyrinth. It looks beautiful!

There are plans to improve the area around the labyrinth and a rededication ceremony is planned for fall. Details to be announced. I encourage you to take a little trip out to LMPH to walk their beautiful labyrinth, and please join the celebration when they have the rededication ceremony.

Love,
Kay
