

FOLLOWING ARIADNE'S RED THREAD

AN EVENING ON THE LABYRINTH

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2007

7:00 PM TO 9:00 PM

KEMPTON HALL

$10 GENERAL FREE TO TRINITY AND LABYRINTH GUILD MEMBERS

When the labyrinth was installed in the nave of Chartres Cathedral around 1200 there was a bronze plaque in the center with the figures of Theseus and the Minotaur engraved upon it. This evening will begin with the telling of this ancient Greek myth that has long been connected with the labyrinth. It will be followed by opportunities for reflection and for walking Trinity's labyrinth which is based on the one at Chartres.

This event is sponsored by the Trinity Labyrinth Guild.

Presenter: Pam Maben

Pam Maben is a member of the Trinity Labyrinth Guild, a Veriditas Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, and Graduate of the School of Sacred Storytelling.

Register by phone: 503-641-5611, e-mail: pammaben@verizon.net, or by signing up at the Trinity Memo Board.