On a Beautiful Garden Labyrinth
7 p.m. April 1, 2009

Celebrate the arrival of spring!

Join us for an evening labyrinth walk on Wednesday, April 1 at a beautiful private garden labyrinth in Beaverton. The walk will begin with a simple ceremony at 7:00 p.m. and conclude with hot drinks served indoors.

To protect the owner's privacy, we aren't posting the address here, but directions will be sent the week before the event to all who register. The event will be free, but we do ask that you register if you are planning to attend.
