

Sharing in the Harvest, Fall Equinox Labyrinth Walk

By now our planet has come through one of the most unusual and difficult astrological periods ever experienced—the great Crosses of the Summer of 2010. We have been called by these intense planetary alignments to discard whatever was not working in our lives, including outdated hierarchical societal models, so as to make way for the new. The Aquarian challenge is the impulse to wholeheartedly embrace personal responsibility creatively and joyously and to practice synarchy, the active, creative and far more empowering art of sharing power among equals, in all areas of our work and play.

Come together this evening to walk in harmony, as co-creators of the warp and weft of All That Is, and within a safe container of sacred space where we can share the sublime energy inherent in the sacred geometry of the Chartres labyrinth design accompanied by soft music and candlelight.
