

Fall Colors Anniversary Celebration and Labyrinth Walk- October 8th 12-5 p.m. at the Historic Laundry Building near Mary's Woods.

Sophia Center was first founded in 1988 at the Historic Laundry Building on the Marylhurst Convent Grounds. We invite you to join us, there once again to celebrate our 23rd year! We will walk our portable labyrinth, to stir the energy for another year of walking wisdom's path.

- * Shay Garrison–The Aura Reader will offer aura readings
 - * Monia Young–Marical will offer pedicures
 - * Founder, Kathryn Knoll, snjm, will have wonderful labyrinth products for sale, along with the classic Hearthstones sets and other clay art.
- Bring your friends and help us celebrate another year and stir the energy of wisdom for our world!

Take the Mary's Woods exit off Hwy 43 and follow the sign toward's Christie Care. Parking is available at the near by Holy Names Heritage Center.

About Us

Sophia Center's Mission is to inspire a shift in consciousness. Our educational and creative opportunities as well as our products invite a fuller expression of the Sacred in our lives. The Sacred is at the heart of silence and the creative process. It invites us through our intentional actions, to create balance, justice and compassion, thus inspiring hope for our world.
