The public is invited to attend an Open House at Living Room at Twin Creeks, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) contemplative retreat center at 41506 292nd Way SE, Enumclaw, WA 98022 on Sunday, December 4, 2011 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. The event includes refreshments, and tours of the grounds and building. Visitors may also take time to try a prayer walk or walk the new labyrinth.

Living Room at Twin Creeks is a new non-profit, non-denominational, spiritual retreat center whose mission is “to help people experience a stronger connection and receptivity to God and foster authentic inner growth.” Located in the foothills of the Cascades, north of Enumclaw, guests of the retreat center enjoy the tranquility of the twin creeks and the serene backdrop of the mountains. The center seeks to serve the greater Seattle area with space for workshops, retreats, events, meetings and personal days.

LRTC offers beginning and in depth teaching on Contemplative and Centering Prayer; Spiritual Formation and Lectio Divina. Silence and Solitude retreats are also available. Similarly, LRTC offers Personal Retreat Days which are limited to six guests per day, with the flexibility and convenience of choice of dates for busy pastors and laypeople alike. Living Room at Twin Creeks also has space for group retreats and meetings for approximately 30 people, depending on the set up.

The grounds are beautifully maintained and artfully arranged into a Prayer Walk that covers the entire property. The Prayer Walk, a series of “stations” consisting of a small reading, a prayer and a verse, was created by the founder, Ricky Gregerson. Each station invites visitors to linger and enjoy the tranquility of the God’s creation.

The retreat center has also recently added an 11-circuit medieval style labyrinth to their offerings. Similar to the labyrinths found at Chartres, Amien and St. Quentin cathedrals in France, this labyrinth is steeped in Christian symbolism, and offers another way for those who visit the Living Room at Twin Creeks to experience prayer. The labyrinth was designed by The Laughing Flower Labyrinth & Landscape Co. and installed by The Laughing Flower/Myra Smith, Larry & Ricky Gregerson and friends and family.
