

2014 TLS Gathering
to be held at Duncan Center
Delray Beach, Florida

Gathering Theme:
Embracing Liminal Space

We often speak of entering or exiting the labyrinth as stepping over a threshold. “Liminal” comes from the Latin word limens, meaning literally, “threshold.” One’s journey into the labyrinth asks that we embrace this liminal space. We are invited to journey into a place of not knowing, a place of waiting, a place in between that which we have known and that which is yet to be revealed.

Without fear or trepidation, please join us at the Duncan Center in Delray Beach Florida, November 14-16th, 2014, for the Labyrinth Society’s 16th Annual Gathering. We will explore how to get comfortable with the uncomfortable, and embrace the liminal nature of the labyrinth as Sacred Space with Keynote Sig Lonegren, Healing Space with Co-Keynotes Zara Renander and Rev. Kelly Holder-Joffrion, and Creative Space with Keynote Jim Buchanan.

An Oasis of Hospitality

A spirit-filled, life giving environment for your conference or retreat. Five wooded acres of peace and serenity, delicious and nutritious food, state of the art meeting spaces, clean and spacious accommodations, caring staff AND affordable prices.

Florida

Make a vacation of it. By day explore the crystal clear Atlantic Ocean or visit unique galleries and boutiques on Atlantic Avenue; enjoy a night of dining and entertainment at any of Delray Beach's award winning cafés or restaurants. When you stay in "Florida's Village by the Sea," at one of the grand hotels or a quaint seaside inn, you will instantly feel the warm and friendly atmosphere that makes downtown Delray Beach such a joy to visit. Delray Beach was recently awarded "Best of the Road - Most Fun Small Town in America" by Rand McNally & USA Today. www.visitdelraybeach.org
