

SACRED DANCE FALL TERM

DANCING OUR UNIVERSAL WELCOME

This fall, Sacred Dance explores historical dance traditions that will help to enhance our appreciation of different cultures, past and present. The labyrinth will guide our steps as we celebrate the Holy Seasons, including Advent & Christmas. The fall series concludes with our Christmas Carol Dance Festival on December 3rd.

People of all abilities are welcome. Wear loose clothing.

Instructors: Jane Rickenbaugh, MA, is a dancer & choreographer who has taught at Clackamas Community College, Mt. Angel Abbey, and Monastery of the Ascension in Jerome, ID.

Susanna Lundgren, MFA, cantor and art historian, has taught sacred music and art at the Monastery of the Ascension and in area colleges for over 25 years.
