

“Drunk on the Wine of the Beloved:

The Mystic Poets in Love”

Walk with the Mystic Poets during a Day of Writing, Reflection and Renewal

Join us for a one-day retreat exploring the work of some of the great mystic poets. We will read, write, reflect, discuss and walk a labyrinth together. This day will be an opportunity to view the windows of mysticism that have beckoned to poets such as Rumi, Hafiz, Sappho, John of the Cross, Emily Dickinson and others.

How does the Beloved come to us, offering us the sweet wine of life, of trust, of sanctuary? The mystic poets write that when we drink from this cup we open ourselves to love for all of life, to a deeper level of compassion and relationship. The mystic poets bring us glimpses of this union that inspires us to create, play, dance, sing and weep. Come explore this poetry with us. Perhaps we will drink of this cup together.

Friday, October 3, 2008, 9:30-3:30

At: Christ United Methodist Church

12755 NW Dogwood St.

Portland 97229

(located near Hwy 26 and Murray Rd.)

Cost: $40

Facilitated by spiritual directors, Peg Edera and Greta Kopec

To register or for more information, contact:

Peg at 503-452-4112 ederap@comcast.net

or Greta at 503-285-8884 greta.kopec@comcast.net

Registration deadline: September 21